City of Auburn Hills Parks & Recreation Volunteer Opportunities

Teen Volunteer Program

Area teens in grades 9-12 can gain valuable working experience by participating in our summer Teen Volunteer Program. Teens work directly with our Summer Day Camp program, special events and various projects at the Community Center.

Park Clean-Ups

Organized groups can help with city parks and trails clean-up efforts – facilities include the Clinton River Trail, Hawk Woods Nature Center, River Woods Park and other city parks. Scouts and scouting groups welcomed for projects/badges.

Youth Sports Coach

Volunteer coaches are always needed in a variety of athletic programs for youth. All coaches must attend a coaches meeting and pass a criminal and background check.

Program Instructors

If you are interested in volunteering your time and/or unique talents as a program instructor, contact the Recreation Department for a Prospective Instructor form and application.

Event sponsorships and other opportunities

Include donations and/or volunteer time at special events including the Easter Egg Hunt, Summerfest, Car Show, Bluegrass Festival, Halloween Trail, Fall Festival in the Woods, as well as support for our youth athletics teams/leagues.

For more information contact the Parks & Recreation Department at (248) 370-9353.
